The greatest assets of any organization are the people within. At Veritas, we pride ourselves on finding and hiring phenomenal people that share our passion for doing the right thing and solving problems.

Bob is Executive Vice President and Co-Founder of Veritas.

Bob founded Veritas to be a different kind of firm: a firm that stresses expertise and rigor in working with clients on their employee benefits and retirement plans, and a firm that forges true partnerships with clients, always putting their interests first and providing them with superior service and complete transparency regarding compensation. With these principles at its core, Veritas has grown significantly and now serves clients in multiple industries across the United States.

Bob provides both employee benefits and retirement plan consulting and account management services to Veritas' clients. Where desired, he works with firms to integrate health and retirement plans into one holistic benefits offering.

In 1999, Bob founded his own employee benefits and property and casualty brokerage. That firm grew steadily, and in he 2008 partnered with Doug Truax to form Veritas.

Thanks to Bob's leadership, Veritas Retirement Consultants is now among the 2% of retirement plan advisors nationally with more than 10 plans and $30 million in total client assets.*

Bob studied economics and sociology at the University of Illinois. He holds Series 6, 63, PPC, life, Health & Accident, Property/Casualty, and LUTCF licenses and designations.
